

UNIVERSE & CO.

TELEGRAM

TO: MS. A.Y. BERTHIAUME

FROM: UNIVERSE & CO.

Dear A.Y.

I know you have a lot of questions - about life and death, and the greater system in place. You want to know how or why certain things happen to certain people. How to know (for certain) to follow this path or that. The role of fate or destiny versus free will and individual choice. Just how exactly am I, the Universe, different from God or am I part of Them somehow? What exactly is my relationship with Jesus? And do I know that I can be a “real jerk sometimes” as you put it (more than once) inside the pages of your first memoir?

You're not alone.

You and millions of other humans want to understand the intricate system - divine and cosmic - that gives you life and wants you to find purpose.

Millions of other humans also want to know things like “Why me? Why this? Why now?”

I'm happy to say there are some who can help you navigate that. And before you get all sassy with me, I'm not talking about a “shrink”.

I'm talking about those with intuitive capabilities - seers, empaths, astrologers, mediums. You'll probably need several to answer all the questions running through your mind.

Seeing it's against the rules to even be writing to you directly, and that I don't have time to answer all the questions I know you have for me, I need to keep this brief.

What I have time to say is this:

Your soul inhabited the very body We hoped it would.

You were born exactly as you were meant to be.

The passion that fuels you is a guiding force to be followed.

The purpose you have on your planet may evolve, but you are right where you're supposed to be for now. When it's time to adjust or change, you'll receive Our nudge. And you'll know it when it happens because you've developed the art of listening when We present the signs to you.

You are on a journey. You'll always be on a journey. Even when you think you've reached some destination, something else will be churning in some area of your life.

So remember to enjoy and be present in the journey because this is it. This is what life is and is about. It's not where you end up, it's how you withstand all the weather along the way.

It's not just about who you become but who you love and open yourself up to. It's about who you help in their own "becoming"?

Consider the quote - which I know you'll appreciate given the person it is credited to - "A heart is not judged by how much you love; but by how much you are loved by others." - L. Frank Baum, author of The Wizard of Oz.

You do have a great many gifts.

You have received a great many lessons.

It's about what you will do with them in this life that counts. I believe you have already received that knowledge and you're already making good on what that means to you.

Because, quite honestly, I do believe, you "get it."

Keep going. Be brave. Stay true to you. Lean on Us when you need to. We're always with and around you and we have always believed in you.
